PANORAMA

29.7 × 21 cm 186 pp. ISBN 978-92-95108-49-8

Price: EUR 30

The first OIE Global Conference on Biological Threat Reduction was convened in 2015 in close collaboration with WHO, to put biological threat reduction on the agenda of Veterinary Services in the OIE Member Countries; strengthen links between the health, animal health and the security sector; promote international human and animal healt frameworks as a key to reducing biological threats; and develop a road map focused on enhancing and coordinating existing mechanisms for outreach ant the strengthening of health systems.

These proceedings include presentations form 34 speakers, including representatives of international organisations, national governments, policy and decision makers, OIE reference centers and donors as well as experts on sciences and economic applied studies.

Order here...

RESOURCES

Proceedings of the first OIE Global Conference on Biological Threat Reduction

Paris, France, 30 June - 2 July 2015

The OIE is an international organisation created in 1924 with a mandate from its 182 Member Countries to improve animal health and welfare. Its activities are permanently supported by 301 centres of scientific expertise and 12 regional offices with a presence on every continent.

